grammatical number - Is it "everyone's life" or "everyone's lives ... Nov 28, 2013 · Closed 7 years ago. Which is correct: "everyone's life" or "everyone's lives"? I know that when the pronoun everyone is used as a subject, it takes singular verb agreement (as in the sentence "Everyone was there"). But this by itself doesn't seem to show that the possessive form "everyone's" always acts like a singular possessive noun. "Who lives there?" vs "Who live there?" - English Language Jun 19, 2018 · For instance: "Who lives there?" - This sentence is asking about the entire group (of residents of the residence) as a collective unit. Hence, the verb "to live" adopts the third-person singular form ("lives"). In contrast: "Which people live there?" - This sentence is asking about the individual members of the group separately from each other. What does "broken lives" mean? - English Language & Usage ... Jul 6, 2014 · The phrase "broken lives" is an idiom (and a borderline cliché) referring to human lives shattered, destroyed, or severely damaged by (usually) a personally or communally catastrophic event. Why is the plural form of "life" "lives", while the plural form of ... I would say still life has undergone reification, which transforms it into a "standalone word". How the subcomponent elements work grammatically doesn't automatically affect how the composite form works. Effectively it's a kind of neologism - not really "new" today, but a lot later than the original word life with its irregular plural. Neologisms ... When to use "lives" as a plural of life? - English Language Aug 5, 2012 · Here are thousands of instances of "our life is short", and I seriously doubt many of them are specific to the lives of, say, a couple living together. It's perfectly normal to refer to human lives collectively in the singular. grammar - "other's lives" vs. "others' lives" - English Language ... Oct 13, 2015 · I'm not sure which of the following is correct: having an impact on other's lives having an impact on others' lives I just can't figure out how the apostrophe should be used. What is the proper way to say possessive with "person X" and self? Possible Duplicate: My wife and I's seafood collaboration dinner I've never known what the proper way to use a sentence in which you and a specific person (as in you can't just say "our" be... Which one is correct-"life" or "lives"? - English Language & Usage ... A plural subject requires a plural object (lives), accordingly a singular subject requires a singular object (life). They can be used to mean one person or several people, however. So, if your intention is to refer to an individual who lost his or her life whilst saving the lives of more than one others, then the second is correct and the first incorrect. They is singular in this context, so ... Using Life or Lives - English Language & Usage Stack Exchange I searched on Google for "Personal and Professional Life" versus "Personal and Professional Lives" and the result for each is around 500,000 results. I want to know if the following sentence is cor... Is it better to say someone lived "at" or "on" a particular street? Sully Road was a bit too far, so now we live at Nutley Street. with the understanding that the speaker is referring to areas accessed from the Sully Road and Nutley Street exits from I-66. Otherwise, as you note, I would expect to hear that someone lives on a street in the U.S., or in a street in Britain, but at a specific address in either.
