Biblical Studies on the Internet Roland H. Worth, Jr.,2008-09-18 The new edition includes more than 4,800 resources available at more than 10,000 Internet sites that provide information on a range of biblical study topics including Bible translations in English and other languages, audio translations of the Bible in English and other languages, commentaries, dictionaries, and other resource materials including ones in Greek, Hebrew and other ancient languages. The author also has adopted a new method of referencing and cataloging the most widely used web pages to facilitate a major expansion of resources without increasing the physical length of the book itself. In cases when ten or more resources are listed on a single web page, the author has assigned the web page a three-digit code. The code is used to identify this web page as a major resource within the main text, while any needed instructions for use of the site are cross-referenced separately in the final chapter. In adopting this concise method, the author was able to add hundreds of additional or updated web resources, a surprising number of which can be downloaded onto a hard drive for immediate and continued use.

And God Said... A. B. Lever,2007-10 The author establishes the undeniable credibility of the original Bible text through archaeological and scientific evidence and fulfilled Bible prophecy, and reveals God's marvelous plan for man. (Social Issues)

True Life Is in Your Mouth and Heart Eunice Jacqueline Fallings, 2024-09-24 Reality = Truth = Reality Facts change from time to time, as more information is accumulated, but reality and truth stay constant as the Bible truth is manifested in our everyday lives and in the world. Truth (no evolution lately). The sun, moon, and stars not only continue to shine in the Garden of Eden but all over the world--truth. We still have apples, oranges, pears, and grass, all the things that God said let there be and said were good, truth, and we're still living that truth. It is good. God called the earth dry land. Heavens and the earth and the host of them were finished in six days--truth, and it's still working! Adam was formed out of dust of the earth and the breath of God. He had a one-on-one relationship with God, but he disobeyed, and that brought about death and separation from God the Father (Genesis 3:3). Adam's imputed sin, by one man's sin = we all become sinners--truth. Imputed (is sin passed to man), all of us are sinners because of Adam's sin (Romans 5:12). In death, to dust our bodies return, but our souls return to God (Genesis 3:19; Genesis 2:7) for judgment. You don't have to teach the children how to sin. Think about it! Adam disobeyed God (sin); that's what disobedience to God's Word is. It's the same today, but God so loved the world (us) he gave the antidote for sin! New creation! His forgiveness! The propitiation! Reconciliation! Justification! The ultimate sacrifice! We can't hold Adam's feet to the fire anymore. God offers us eternal life! True life is offered to us by God, and you can find it in your mouth!

The Exodus: The Story and Evidence Harold Lerch, 2024-08-06 The Books of Exodus and Numbers describe miraculous intervention by God in the Israelite escape from Egypt. The only Israelite requirement was faith in God. After the escape, God gave The Law to His people and established proper worship. God also taught Israel His just requirements which convicted Israel of sin, the provisions of priesthood, and the way of forgiveness, cleansing, and restoration to fellowship. God also led them to build a Tabernacle and connected Himself with the His People through His covenants with Abraham and Moses. He lived among them in the cloud of glory that led them through the wilderness. The years of wandering lasted forty years. The Israelites were rescued from Egypt, led by Moses, possessing The Law and the Tabernacle, and supernaturally guided by a cloud and pillar of fire. It should have been easy to follow the perfect will of God following all the miracles and leadership of Moses, but they failed repeatedly, as the Book of Numbers details.

From Adam to Babylon Harold Lerch, 2024-09-17 First and Second Chronicles include the most complete collection of genealogical records in the Bible linking redemptive history to the focal point in David: Messiah Jesus descends from King David, Noah, and Adam. Topics also include events from First and Second Kings, the building of the First Temple, the Kingdom of Judah, Great Revival, and Babylonian captivity. The Chronicles include some of the greatest history found in the Old Testament.

Genesis: After the Flood Harold Lerch, 2024-07-01 Genesis is the foundation of the entire Bible. Genesis records the beginning of the heavens and the earth, and of plant, animal, and human life. It voices the rebirth and the new creation which followed the world-wide flood’s chaos and ruin. The problem of Adam’s “first sin” has affected man’s condition on the earth and his relationship to God. This first, or “original sin remained with those who disembarked the ark and continues with us today. Yet God made eight great covenants with man including four in the Book of Genesis: the Edenic, the Adamic, Noahic, and Abrahamic Covenants. The latter is included in this text of Genesis Two. Genesis scriptures are found within the New Testament and is quoted more than sixty times in seventeen of the twenty-seven books. So the roots of all subsequent prophecy is planted in Genesis. Genesis is not a book of myths as many non-believing speakers would state. Modern archaeology witnesses to the historical reliability of Genesis and the Bible.

What God told Moses Harold Lerch, 2024-10-18 The theme of Leviticus is “Holiness. This book by Moses is devoted to worship by the redeemed people, the Israelites. This is shown by the frequent use of words concerning “holiness” and “sacrifice.” The topic of sacrifice pervades the book. The words holiness and holy, appear more than 150 times. Also, God’s commandment is often repeated, You shall be holy, for I am holy. Deuteronomy means “The Second Law” with the theme

"The Law Restated." The book was written by Moses at about the same time as Leviticus. Deuteronomy begins with an overview of the history of Israel, then reviews the basic laws of the preceding books [Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers] and concludes with a series of prophecies of the Israelite final return to Palestine.

Joshua, Judges, and Ruth Harold Lerch, 2024-11-09 The Books of Joshua and Judges cover the history of Israel's conquest of the Promised Land, division of the land among the tribes, and the appointment of judges to serve as leaders. Joshua, who followed God faithfully, records the military campaigns led by Joshua in conquering the Promised Land. It concludes with the division of the land among the tribes. Under the judges, the cycle so common in Israel's history (rebellion, retribution, repentance, and restoration) occurs repeatedly. The Book of Ruth contains early events from within the time of the judges. Joshua is a book of victory; Judges is a book of defeat. Ruth provides a glimmer of hope.

The Evidence Carlene Rodgers and Elene Rodgers, 2019-09-05 Genesis starts off with, In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth: (Genesis 1:1). This is the beginning of time. In Revelation 21:6 Jesus says, It is done. This is the end of time. This book charts the time that God has given. As you study the Bible you will see that God gives us a detailed account of the years since Creation. This information reveals the age of the earth and looks forward to the time when God will make a new heaven and a new earth.' It is an excellent reference to assist your Bible study in understanding the timing of significant biblical events, prophecies given and the timing of their fulfillment, and to see how history corresponds with the Bible. Time is of no human origin; it comes from God. God has given us time to display His awesome power, endearing love, and righteous character. In Isaiah 46:9,10, He says, Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, 10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure. Declaring means to make known, to proclaim, or to publish by posting. God has made known the end from the beginning and He put it in writing in the Holy Bible as a written record to the world. This is another evidence of His divine authority because only God can do this! The purpose of time is not simply to count the years gone by, but to schedule an appointment of an anticipated event. Understanding time helps us know where we are in the stream of time in relation to that appointment. After tracing all the time that God has given, we should ask, What is the divine appointment that God wants us to be aware of since He has provided all this information in the Bible for us to keep track of the time? Acts 17:26 says that He hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; This biblical chart of time reveals The Evidence that God is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end: It should inspire us with faith to trust Him. As we recognize the Creator's hand in time we should humbly bow and worship Him in sincerity and truth.
