"I am not hungry no more." [duplicate] - English Language ... May 2, 2017 · We don't need no education: The same sentence with all the negated parts replaced with positive-polarity ones would be We need some education, because don't ("do not") is the negation of phrases headed by the verb do, and both no and some are quantifiers for the noun education. What does "there ain't no one for to give you no pain" mean? Sep 8, 2016 · No one is causing you pain While there seem to be not just double but triple negatives here (ain't, no one, no pain) I think the rest of the chorus gives us that there's a positive meaning here ... we are pain free. Quite how that stacks up with the verses is beyond me. negation - What does "We don't need no education" mean? But in We don't need no education sentence, there is Don't and No in phrase. which I can't understand the meaning of it. what does it mean? We do not need any education? How is double negation interpreted in English? Oct 16, 2013 · Even the classic sentence someone mentioned "We don't need no education" is grammatically incorrect in its context. Double negatives cancel out each other and the sentence essentially means "We need an education"! Similarly, never use double negation such as "I haven't got no money." This really means that "I have money."! "You can't put nothing past nobody." What does he mean? Jan 5, 2020 · It's sort of like "We don't need no education" to mean "We don't need any education". That being said, "You can't put nothing past nobody" is essentially equivalent to "You can't put anything past anybody". negation - At checkout: I don't need [?] bag - English Language ... The correct phrase here is "no, I don't need a bag." "I don't need no bag" is something you might hear sometimes -- double negatives ("do not need no bag") are technically incorrect, but used by many native speakers anyway. grammar - English Language Learners Stack Exchange Jan 26, 2018 · As a "we don't need no education" Brit, I thought I could handle multiple stacked negations, but the truth is I can't figure out what examples #1 and #3 might be intended to mean. And I can only get my head around #2 and #4 by understanding losing it as becoming angry or emotional, which probably isn't what OP has in mind. difference - "Don't have no time" vs "don't have time" - English ... Feb 8, 2017 · Literally it means you "have time" since you don't have " no time" which would mean you have " some time". But it can mean not having any time in certain regional dialects in the US. Not with neither usage - English Language Learners Stack ... Oct 22, 2021 · The kind of double negation 1 facetiously showcased in Pink Floyd's We don't need no education generally only occurs with the kind of speakers who would say I can't... rather than I am not able to..., so you probably wouldn't encounter OP's second example in the real world. To use

"don't" and "no" in one sentence to make it negative Mar 13, 2022 · We don't need no education - Another Brick in the Wall, Part 2, by Pink Floyd It wouldn't be nothing, nothing without a woman or a girl - It's a Man's World, by James Brown
