Who God Says You Are Klyne R. Snodgrass, 2018-01-08 WHO ARE YOU? For respected New Testament scholar Klyne Snodgrass, this is the most important question a person can ask—the question from which everything else in life flows. Other questions follow: What made you who you are? Who gets to say who you are? And—perhaps most vital—Who does God say you are? In this book Snodgrass offers wise guidance to all who are wrestling with such universal human questions. He examines nine factors—including one's body, personal history, commitments, and boundaries—that shape human identity, and he expertly draws out what the Bible tells us about who God says we are, how we fit within God's purposes, and how our God-given identity can and must impact the way we live our lives.

God Says You Are Jeremy Bouma, 2015-10-01 Every day we are fed a million messages that tell us who we are. Work says we are slow. Society says we don't measure up. That inner voice tells us we're not good enough. But who does God say you are? The One who made and saved you, the God who knows you better than you know yourself? God Says You Are is built on the basic belief that if you knew who you really are, you wouldn't want to be anyone else. And who you really are is who God says you are! This book is your guide to your true identity in your Creator and Savior. It organizes all of who God says you are from the Bible in relevant topics, making it the perfect reference when you need God's reassurance most. Short devotionals at the beginning of each topic will breathe new life into how you see yourself and understand your identity. So who does God say you are? Able and accepted, cherished and chosen, forgiven and free, known and not guilty, secure and strong, whole and wholly his. Give one to a friend, keep a copy on your desk, because what God says about you is what ultimately matters!

Known Aubrey Sampson, 2021-09-07 Who am I? Does God see me? Does God love me? What is my purpose? So much is tied up in our longing to know who we are: our worth, whether we're loved, what we're meant to do with our lives. But there's a powerful truth that settles every question: God has named us, and the names he has spoken over us settle every question and pain we have experienced in our search for identity. Names help us know that we belong and to whom we belong. Names carry authority and power. But we also carry other names—painful, damaging names that we have spoken over ourselves or that others have branded on us. Too often, in times of low self-worth, grief, or failure, we exchange our God-given identity for those false names. When we believe God’s names for us, we will discover a life lived with purpose and passion. Are you ready to accept God’s invitation to silence the inner voice that keeps you from living freely, joyfully, and confidently? A lot is at stake in understanding the sacred truth of who you are. The names you believe about yourself impact how you live, how you love, and how you move and bear witness to the gospel. Hear this: God has true names that he speaks over you and wants you to hear above the false banter. Known invites you to understand and embrace what it means to be created and named in the image of God. In the process, it will ignite a passion to speak life-giving names over others, to bless them through the power of the Name that is above every other. With vulnerability and humor, Aubrey Sampson shows you what it means to be powerfully and personally made and named in the image of God. Everything changes when you believe this incredible truth: You are known by God.

You Are Valuable! Brent Housley, 2022-03-27 When it comes to your identity, what you know and believe is everything. The power of knowing your true identity begins with knowing and believing who God says you are in Christ Jesus. Discovering your identity will cause you to learn and know that you are valuable in Christ Jesus. Because you are who God says you are. My prayer for the believer and nonbeliever, that they by reading this book would receive God's wisdom and knowledge and understanding of who they are and what their true identity is. That they would learn and know that they are valuable. Jesus paid the price by his death burial and Resurrection, so that we would be able to receive our true identity that Jesus Christ has given us. My prayer for you, the reader. The Passion Translation: Ephesians 3:14-20 Brent Housley is a speaker and teacher of the word of God, Empowering believers to take the word of God and apply it to their lives, and to see them grow and mature in the word of the Lord. He passionately shares his personal story of knowing who he is in Christ and inspires other to discover and boldly pursue their God given purpose, Knowing who God says they are and knowing who they are in Christ. He is married to his wife Annette for 41 yrs. and has an awesome son and daughter and has a wonderful son-in-law and daughter-in-law and multiple incredible grandkids, they reside in Colorado. He finds joy in restoring classic and antique cars, and being with his family and friends. His greatest passion is to fulfill God's chosen call and purpose for his life and spending time with the Lord and talking about Jesus.

Who Am I Adekemi Adebisi, 2011-06 In a world of constant change and chaos, it is so easy to get caught up in living life. More than ever before we realise that we are defined by the challenges and circumstances we encounter. Many believers find themselves torn between earthly realities and heavenly possibilities, a situation that tends to bring about an identity crisis. But is there actually a way of making these heavenly possibilities earthly realities? Is there a place we can go to find answers to the question, Who Am I? without building beliefs on an ever changing foundation? Adekemi defines who a believer is by using the word of God, with salvation through Jesus Christ as a foundation. Without this foundation our belief will be meaningless as we would be unstable, being tossed around with all manner of doctrine. As you take in the pages of this book you will receive insight into: - Who God says you are - The promise that makes your identity sure - Practical steps to develop yourself in your new identity - How what you say and think affects who you become - The high calling of God Life's Joy Killers and Joy Makers LaVon Koerner, 2020-09-11 Christ said, "These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full" (John 15:11). A joy-filled person is the best advertisement Christ has for a joyless world to consider his loving offer of salvation. The second fruit of the Spirit (joy) makes one an inspirational and infectious person to be around, whether you are a marriage partner, a business leader, or a next-door neighbor. The way Christ wants to accomplish this in and for us is through his two-step process as outlined in Colossians 3: •Step One: "Put to death therefore what is earthly in you" (Col 3:5). We will refer to this as the removal of a Joy Killer. •Step Two: "Put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge" (Col 3:10). We will refer to this as a Joy Maker. Each chapter is divided into these two steps. First, it begins with a removal of a Joy Killer and it is immediately followed with its replacement of a Joy Maker. With each chapter, you find an increasingly deep and rewarding joy as you pitch your tent one day closer to eternity.
