Golden Quotes by F. M. Dostoevsky Fyodor Mihailovich Dostoevsky, "Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice. <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory-vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> The works of F. M. Dostoevsky have long been torn into quotations. The writer's thoughts have forever entered the treasury of the best aphorisms of Russian classics. However, more and more often, and primarily in the media and on the Internet, quotes attributed to Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevsky are published. In this collection, an attempt was made to collect the brightest and most significant thoughts of the author, put into the mouth of his heroes or expressed by himself in numerous articles and notes. These are thoughts concerning the main topics that worried the writer throughout his creative life: faith and God, man and his life, creativity, modernity, morality, love and, of course, Russia.

Everything We Didn't Say Nicole Baart, 2021-11-02 From the author of Little Broken Things, a “race-to-the-finish family drama” (People) following a mother who must confront the dark summer that changed her life forever in order to reclaim the daughter she left behind. Juniper Baker had just graduated from high school and was deep in the throes of a summer romance when Cal and Beth Murphy, a childless couple who lived on a neighboring farm, were brutally murdered. When her younger brother became the prime suspect, June’s world collapsed and everything she loved that summer fell away. She left, promising never to return to tiny Jericho, Iowa. Until now. Officially, she’s back in town to help an ill friend manage the local library. But really, she's returned to repair her relationship with her teenage daughter, who's been raised by Juniper's mother and stepfather since birth—and to solve the infamous Murphy murders once and for all. She knows the key to both lies in the darkest secret of that long-ago summer night, one that's haunted her for nearly fifteen years. As history begins to repeat itself and a dogged local true crime podcaster starts delving into the murders, the race to the truth puts past and present on a dangerous collision course. Juniper lands back in an all-too-familiar place with the answers to everything finally in her sights, but this time it's her daughter's life that hangs in the balance. Will revealing what really happened mean a fresh start? Or will the truth destroy everything Juniper loves for a second time? Baart once again brilliantly weaves mystery into family drama in this expertly-crafted novel for fans of Lisa Jewell and Megan Miranda.

Compass in the Existence Margarita R. Pedrozo-Walling, 2016-01-20 Here is wisdom, plain and simple. Whereas a Zen Koan will challenge you to intuit its import and thus achieve enlightenment, these lines are forthright and free for the taking. Far from the philosophical adumbrations of Miguel de Unamuno, farther yet from cutesy ersatz wisdom ala Francois de la Rochefoucauld these daily lines present the perennial knowledge of the true, the good, the beautiful, the wisdom and the One. Salomon has confided that, if you invite wisdom, she will come to you. With that assurance, read and believe on these spiritual daily quotes for any moment of the year. Then sit yourself down quiet and alert, dismissing each thought or sensation as it arises and just wait. I suspect this is how the author day by day obtained her wisdom. Robert Call, former Catholic priest, human rights activist, playwright and actor.

Color Me Yellow Sarah Raquel Gautier, 2019-03-14 You hold a powerful voice inside of you. A voice that adds color to God's canvas on earth. God is a master artisan painting a beautiful canvas filled with vibrant colors. We are those colors. We see the beauty of the canvas when we find our colors. Those colors release their fullest expression when we communicate with our God-designed voice. In a world where we constantly consume the voices of others, it can be tempting to mimic the voices we hear. When we allow other voices to become our voices, we can easily dilute the unique color that God designed within us. But we are not the echoes of other people's voices. We are uniquely designed colors. Together, we can begin to add our color to God's masterpiece.

Mysticism in Newburyport Peter James Ford, 2021-08-05 This is the second book of lighthearted tales in this seven-book series, under the title: "MYSTICISM IN NEWBURYPORT." This is the personal journey of just another soul re-awakening to his divinity in this lifetime and reuniting with his true self. Peter was to have many profound spiritual experiences along the Merrimac River in Newburyport, Massachusetts. So, to honor this unique, historic seaport, he has chosen to use this title for his seven-book series on his continued journey of awakening. These personal accounts of Peter's journey are more of an individual perspective of life, rather than any particular location. 'Book One' was introduced at the Miami International Book Fair as a modern-day version of the Herman Hesse classic novel called: "SIDDHARTHA." After a profound spiritual awakening, through the grace of a Meditation Master, Peter was to personally have the experiences from long nights along the river in meditation, that the fictional character had experienced in Herman's classic novel. These writings are really a 'Unique School of Thought' from Peter's insights through Nature. As in Newburyport where the river revealed all its secrets. Now, the shifting sands of the Southern Maine coast are revealing its secrets for book two. Peter feels blessed as the treasures from Nature are so abundant in New England coast and in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. After growing up in Lynn, Mass, where Peter was involved with heavy alcohol consumption, sixties drug use, arrests, broken bones, violence, motorcycle crashes and high-speed chases. Peter realized a deep love for motorcycles and physical training during his early years. Peter was to end up in the 12-step program at nineteen years old. He entered the program over fifty-years ago in March 1970, and almost immediately had a spiritual awakening. There is a difference between a spiritual awakening and a spiritual experience. On Peter's path he was to experience both; as did the founder of the first 12-step program. Seven years sober, Peter was in deep emotional and mental pain (experiencing despair) and from this pain (pain is the touchstone of spiritual growth), he was to have his first spiritual experience. Peter now knew deep in his heart that God was actually The Intelligence Behind Nature and also that this intelligence was in his every cell of his body, as it is the giver of all life. It was around twenty-five years sober that Peter's older brother introduced him to a Meditation Master, who was to become his guide at these higher levels of understanding and evolvment. Peter has said: "That the more he learned about the Ancient Universal Principles, the less he felt he knew." Peter said: "It is kind of humorous that when you actual attain something worthwhile, what goes along with it is humility, just another soul on the path; another bozo on the bus." Best Wishes on Your Personal Journey.

Shambhala's Ghosts Peter James Ford, 2024-01-14 "SHAMBHALA'S GHOSTS" is a book recording the continual soul expansion of the seeker, Peter James Ford. Peter's journey began after a powerful spiritual experience in the little historic seaport in Newburyport, Massachusetts. In Peter's late night meditations which were along the Merrimac River, the boardwalk, the Salisbury Reservation on the Atlantic Ocean, Plum Island, Maudsley Estate State Park, Pow Wow Hill (Native American Burial Grounds) and Old Hill Burial Grounds he was having vivid visions in his mind of 'seemingly' past life experiences and powerful insights. Peter began seeing the hidden secrets of this quaint little seaport that people never take the time to see. Peter's intuition and senses increased in an almost scary powerful way giving Peter wisdom from unseen sources. One source may be the Akashic Records/Library that is not a physical library but a place in the ethers that contains all the wisdom and knowledge ever known to anyone over the eons. We can access this power through ancient spiritual practices and apparently Peter has done just that. Stories and Tales began flowing from Peter and he wrote his first book. In the last three years Peter has written nine more books and shares everything he has found from his journeys to the inner worlds. Peter wrote a seven-book series under the title "MYSTICISM IN NEWBURYPORT" then the eighth and ninth bonus/companion books called "MYSTIC" & "VISION QUEST." Now you are holding his new writings in your hands. Peter laughingly calls himself "An Unlikely Messenger" as his younger years were nothing resembling anything spiritual. So, here is the story of just another seeker realizing his divinity and returning to his own heart...
