Summary of Can't Hurt Me Alexander Cooper,2021-10-16 Summary of Can't Hurt Me - Master Your Mind and Defy the Odds - A Comprehensive Summary The first chapter of the book is a chapter where the author of the book writes about his early childhood. Moreover, as we read it, we learn much about Mr. Goggins' family circumstances, neighborhood, and the situation in which he and his family lived. Even though everything on Paradise Road looked like the good life at first, David described his life there literally as "hell." David's father Tunnis Goggins, was a successful businessman. He was a handsome man and built like a boxer. When his father met his mother Jackie, she was seventeen years younger than he was. Jackie was beautiful and built slender. The two of them had two sons; Tunnis Jr. and David. Tunnis started as an owner of a Coca-Cola distribution concession and four-delivery routes owner in Buffalo when he was just twenty. Several years later, he opened one of Buffalo's first roller skating rinks and a bar above it. This skate land became the business of Goggins family. That was how everyone else saw it. Tunnis Jr., Jackie, and David had to work there every night. They usually got there at 5 p.m. However, the real work began at 10 p.m. when the Skateland doors were typically closed. During that time, the three of them had to do the work of cleaning the place and taking inventory. When it comes to David's father, David emphasizes that his father never gave any of them any cut from the proceeds of the Skateland or the Vermillion Room. Furthermore, his dad never allowed David's mother to have her own bank account or credit cards in her name.
