Mercado de trabajo y género en Málaga durante la crisis de la restauración Concepción Campos,2001 Los estudios de genero han puesto de relieve que el significado de la diferencia sexual debe ser tenido en cuenta como uno de los principios que sustentan la organizacion de la sociedad. Este libro de la profesora campos luque, constituye un excelente ejemplo de esta forma de entender la historia al reconstruir las relaciones sociales de mujeres y hombres en la crisis de la restauracion, en un trabajo que puede considerarse pionero, y que debe encuadrarse en el doble casillero de la historia economica y la historia social, materias a las que enriquece con miradas ineditas. En este sentido, una de las grandes aportaciones del libro es la atencion prestada al cambio demografico desde una perspectiva de genero. Pero la calve de boveda del libro es el estudio del mercado de trabajo realizada desde una perspectiva de genero. El resultado es una amplia radiografia de las realidades laborales malagueñas, en la que se aprecia la feminizacion de ciertos oficios ejercidos por las mujeres de las capas populares y de otras ocupaciones desarrolladas por mujeres vinculadas al impreciso mundo de las clases medias. Radiografia tanto mas precisa por la atencion que se presta al estudio de las condiciones de vida de las trabajadoras: Instruccion, salarios, legislacion, caja de maternidad, seguro obrero, paro y bolsas de trabajo. Por ultimo el libro focaliza primero y desmenuza despues la conflictividad social femenina que se enmarca en el movimiento asociativo y sindical, estableciendo una necesaria tipologia de las huelgas desarrolladas por las mujeres.
