How to Market a Children's Book Karen P Inglis, A practical guide to all aspects of children's book marketing from bestselling children's author Karen Inglis Whether you've just published your first children's book and aren't sure where to start with marketing, or are struggling to increase sales of your existing titles, 'How to Market a Children's Book' is here to help. Packed full of practical guidance, and drawing on over 10 years' experience of children's book marketing by international bestselling children's author Karen Inglis, it offers a trusted resource for you to return to again and again for support with both offline and online marketing and advertising strategies. This book assumes you already fully understand the various self-publishing options and distribution processes for print, eBooks and audiobooks, or that you are a traditionally published children's author looking for new ideas to help promote your book(s). If you also need guidance on the self-publishing process, look instead for Karen's combined flagship publication How to Self-publish and Market a Children's Book (Second Edition). After reading 'How to Market a Children's Book' you will understand: - How to establish your brand locally and why this is important - How to get reviews both at and after your children's book launch - How to set up successful school visits and other face-to-face events - How to plan and run virtual school visits or other online events - Best practice and expectations for getting into bookshops - Why and how eBooks should be part of your print book marketing strategy - Which tools and collaborative platforms can help your children's book marketing - How to use email marketing, including staying within data protection rules for minors - Key strategies for Amazon advertising, and why this is the best place to start - Other social media and advertising options, including Facebook, Instagram and Pinterest - Audiobook marketing - your key options - Translation and foreign rights as part of an advanced marketing strategy Karen Inglis is a successful self-published author of picture books, illustrated chapter books and middle grade novels. Her time travel adventure The Secret Lake has sold over 450,000 English language print copies worldwide, close to 20,000 paid eBook copies and over 8,000 audiobooks. She has also sold rights to eight countries and overseen its translation into German, where 'Der verborgene See' is an Amazon.de bestseller at the time of writing in 2022. Each of Karen's picture books and chapter books have sold in their thousands through a combination of school visits, bookshop sales and online sales. Karen's picture book 'The Christmas Tree Wish' was shortlisted for the UK Selfies Award for best self-published children's book in 2020. Her most recent picture book 'The Tell-Me Tree' has received praise by parents and teachers alike, and is being used in UK classrooms to help children talk about feelings. Karen has presented on children's self-publishing at conferences around the UK and is Children's Advisor at The Alliance of Independent Authors.

Hirji: Growing Up With Tanzania ,2023-04-05 In Growing up with Tanzania. Karim Hirji, a renowned Professor of Medical Statistics and Fellow of the Tanzania Academy of Science, presents a multi-faceted, evocative portrait of his joyous but conflicted passage to adulthood during colonial and early-Uhuru Tanzania. His smooth style engages the reader with absorbing true tales, cultural currents, critical commentary and progressive possibilities. By vibrantly contrasting the hope-filled sixties with the cynical modern era, he also lays bare the paradoxes of personal life and society, past and present.

The EAL Teaching Book Jean Conteh,2023-05-24 As the number of children for whom English is an Additional Language in schools increases, how do teachers and trainees prepare to support them to succeed? A complete guide to understanding, learning from and teaching bilingual and EAL children in schools. The text begins by asking 'who are EAL learners' and challenges some of the misconceptions about this group. It goes on to examine language in depth, providing focused theory to help teachers and trainees better understand the wider context of children's needs. This theory is supported by a wealth of information on practical teaching strategies and resources in the promoting learning section. The text covers planning across the curriculum for EAL and offers day-to-day practical support for teachers. The fourth edition is updated throughout and includes a new chapter on EAL and SEND.

We, the authors, are real teachers just like you and we've got the battle-scars to prove it! Our aim is to help other teachers enhance their current practice by providing support and guidance as they begin bridging the gaps that have, until now, prevented them from taking advantage of the educational opportunities that information and communication technologies have to offer. This handbook contains 38 step-by-step comprehensive lessons, graded according to difficulty and organized according to age group and subject. As well as detailed lesson instructions you will also find handy hints and tips to help you avoid any potential pitfalls, safety notes so that you can be as confident as possible that learners will use the internet safely and responsibly, and a list of loads more ways you can use an applications once you've mastered it. We're such nice people we've also included links to examples that we've use, links to online tutorials and helpful websites!

Essentials of Elementary Social Studies William B. Russell III, Stewart Waters, 2021-08-30 Essentials of Elementary Social Studies is a teacher friendly text that provides comprehensive treatment of classroom planning, instruction, and strategies. Praised for its dynamic approaches and a writing style that is conversational, personal, and professional, this text enables and encourages teachers to effectively teach elementary social studies using creative and active learning strategies. This sixth edition has been refined with new and relevant topics and strategies needed for effectively teaching elementary social studies. A few of new features include: An expanded chapter on the decision-making process in elementary social studies. This chapter provides additional discussion about the importance of helping young learners better understand the decision-making process and offers strategies for helping teachers make connections between choices, values, character development, and social justice. An updated chapter on technology designed to better prepare elementary teachers to effectively incorporate technology into social studies instruction. Attention is given to virtual teaching and learning, media literacy, teaching with film, and numerous other ways to improve teaching and learning in the digital age. Updated further readings and helpful resources for all chapters to include supplemental digital and video sources related to various topics throughout the chapter. New Checking for Understanding section at the end of each chapter that focuses on comprehension, application, and reflection on key concepts throughout the chapters. An updated chapter on lesson plans, in keeping with the book's emphasis on planning and teaching. This chapter is designed to provide elementary social studies teachers with new classroom-tested lesson plans and includes two classroom-tested lessons for each grade level (K-6).

Thinking Through New Literacies for Primary and Early Years Jayne Metcalfe, Debbie Simpson, Ian Todd, Mike Toyn, 2013-06-17 Thinking Through New Literacies for Primary and Early Years is an accessible text that encourages readers to consider deeply what is meant by 'literacy' today. It explores the many different ways in which teachers and children develop their own literacy. Specifically written for education students in the later years of their course, the text draws on research and practice to explore the challenges and opportunities involved, while helping to develop the reader's own critical thinking skills. The book begins by asking 'what's new about new literacies?' and goes on to explore some technological innovations designed to support the emergent reader and writer. It considers verbal literacy, speaking and listening, and visual literacy. Readers are encouraged to think through the issues surrounding inclusion and the legal and ethical issues raised by this post-typographic age. Throughout, practical guidance runs alongside structured critical thinking exercises to help the reader reflect on both theory and practice. About the Thinking Through Education Series Thinking Through Education is a series of texts designed and written specifically for those education students entering the second or final phase of their degree course. Structured around sets of specific 'skills', each chapter uses critical thinking and reflective exercises to develop greater subject knowledge and critical awareness. Each book contains links to the Teachers' Standards providing students with a clear transition from study to practice. Jayne Metcalfe is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Cumbria. Jayne is involved in e-safety training of student teachers. Debbie Simpson is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Cumbria. She is currently the acting Programme Leader for the Primary PGCE course. Ian Todd is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Cumbria, with a specialism in English and an interest in the teaching of ICT. Mike Toyn is a senior lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Cumbria where he also coordinates the teaching of primary ICT.

do thoughtco - Jan 14 2023 web feb 4 2020 the cerebral cortex is the thin layer of the brain that covers the outer portion 1.5mm to 5mm of the cerebrum it is covered by the meninges and often referred to as gray matter the cortex is gray because nerves in this area lack the insulation that makes most other parts of the brain appear to be white the cortex also covers the cerebellum
