Brian Moses, Willow Krauchi

Playground Aron Beauregard, 2025-08-15 EVERY PLAYGROUND HAS A PROTOTYPE Geraldine Borden has realized that there's one thing her bottomless wealth can't grant her: children. When an attempt to remedy her infertility fails, she's left with nothing but rage, jealousy, and a murderous idea. She aims to take a place that all children adore and transform it into a twisted arena of carnage. And while her true masterpiece is still under construction, she seeks to entertain herself with a crude prototype filled with barbaric backyard games. Several children from a small New England city have gone missing under mysterious circumstances. This group of kids—who once believed fractured family and teen angst were their toughest battles—now have a whole new set of problems. With no parents to guide them, will the children thrust into Geraldine's nightmare world have the grit and determination to escape? Or will they fall victim to their sadistic captor? The much-anticipated prequel to Aron Beauregard's controversial book Playground revisits some of the author's most reprehensible characters. It includes 18 interior illustrations and pushes the limits of incendiary literature even further.

Excerpt: ...two halves of 15 minutes each, with an intermission of 10 minutes. The team having the ball at the end of the first half, shall start the play at the beginning of the second half. Should the ball be in play when time is called, the team not having the ball at the opening of the game shall start the play in the second half. 4. The captains are appointed by the instructor, and their term of office expires at the close of the game. For match games, the captain may be selected by the team. The captain gives the players their positions on the court. He is the only player who may talk to the Referee during the game. 5. The game may be opened in two ways. (1) The captain, who secures the toss-up opens the game. (2) The game is opened by the Referee (or instructor) who stands on the division line and tosses the ball up between the captains. The captains shall stand at the least 3 feet apart, measuring from the advanced foot. The Referee shall see that none but the captains try for the toss-up. When a captain has secured the ball, either by catching or batting it into his own court, the game is not formally opened until the captains have returned to their respective positions, in the forward center of the court, and the Referee gives the signal (whistle) to play ball. The captain who secures the ball opens the game. 1. A touchdown is when a ball sent by one team clears the rope (that is, passes over without touching it) and strikes any clear space in the opponent's court. 2 A touchdown counts two points for the side sending the ball. V. Fouls: a.. Important: When a foul is made the ball shall be given to the captain of the other team. 1. A ball thrown under the rope or one that touches...
