Eric Michael Mazur

E-Mails from Satan's Daughter D. Alexander Holiday, 2011-07-25 Monsters. We all have them around us in one form or another, from the little bully in the schoolyard or the bigger bully next door or the bully at work and on the street. Some of our monsters appear to us as our parents or other guardians or adults and some are other siblings and strangers. These monsters can be quite real, they can be touched, seen, and heard. They haunt us during the day and they come to bed with us when we are ready to go to sleep. Some of these monsters are created for us by television, magazines, and comic books, monsters like the Alien creature that was always after Sigourney Weavers character Ripley, or the things in the cavernous hell-like holes in The Descent (1 and 2) movies. Monsters, whether they be the Power Ranger variety or some creature out of a really good horror novel or movie, comic or the heart pulsing kind, and either human or imaginary, these creatures leave their scars behind if you can survive their brutality. Mr. Holiday would like you to turn the pages and meet a few of his monsters one in particular being.

How I Saved Satan's Daughter in Another World: Vol 2 Tobi Yaza, 2021-04-26 Having already proven himself victorious over the first battle of New Frontier City, Art along with Samantha and her 7 Generals are now trying to reintegrate themselves back into society and prove that they have their best interest as their new leaders. Of course, this all happens when the Immortan Amare decided to kidnap Art and have him fully embrace his immortal heritage, leaving everyone worried as to what might come without the presence of their hero.

Satan's Child L. B. Frazier, 2011-03-24 Why do educated people allow other's to manipulate them? It is astonishing when people follow blindly, without thinking for themselves. Some believe everything they read or allow other's to tell them how to think and feel. Although this is a fictional story, it was based on a true, but bizarre occurrence. SATAN'S CHILD is a story of a small child who was murdered by her mother and of how god-fearing people allowed this to occur. This is a story about a sociopathic woman who the local church tried to save from the clutches of Satan, only to be manipulated by her into believing a child has to die to earn them glory with God. Sue Vaughn, the mother of six-year-old namesake, Susie Vaughn, falls in love with her dentist and sets out to get him. The dentist who is a womanizer sets about to draw Sue into his church. Together they manipulate the town's people and use them for their own gains. Moral corruption runs amuck through the small town.

Epic F. J. Piacine, 2010-10-11 Epic is a journey of bloodshed and triumph as Patrick leads seven angels to kill four demons. The angels meet friends along the way. The four demons just may be too powerful to kill. A must read.

The Literary Mind Mark Turner, 1996-09-19 We usually consider literary thinking to be peripheral and dispensable, an activity for specialists: poets, prophets, lunatics, and babysitters. Certainly we do not think it is the basis of the mind. We think of stories and parables from Aesop's Fables or The Thousand and One Nights, for example, as exotic tales set in strange lands, with spectacular images, talking animals, and fantastic plots--wonderful entertainments, often insightful, but well removed from logic and science, and entirely foreign to the world of everyday thought. But Mark Turner argues that this common wisdom is wrong. The literary mind--the mind of stories and parables--is not peripheral but basic to thought. Story is the central principle of our experience and knowledge. Parable--the projection of story to give meaning to new encounters--is the indispensable tool of everyday reason. Literary thought makes everyday thought possible. This book makes the revolutionary claim that the basic issue for cognitive science is the nature of literary thinking. In The Literary Mind, Turner ranges from the tools of modern linguistics, to the recent work of neuroscientists such as Antonio Damasio and Gerald Edelman, to literary masterpieces by Homer, Dante, Shakespeare, and Proust, as he explains how story and projection--and their powerful combination in parable--are fundamental to everyday thought. In simple and traditional English, he reveals how we use parable to understand space and time, to grasp what it means to be located in space and time, and to conceive of ourselves, other selves, other lives, and other viewpoints. He explains the role of parable in reasoning, in categorizing, and in solving problems. He develops a powerful model of conceptual construction and, in a far-reaching final chapter, extends it to a new conception of the origin of language that contradicts proposals by such thinkers as Noam Chomsky and Steven Pinker. Turner argues that story, projection, and parable precede grammar, that language follows from these mental capacities as a consequence. Language, he concludes, is the child of the literary mind. Offering major revisions to our understanding of thought, conceptual activity, and the origin and nature of language, The Literary Mind presents a unified theory of central problems in cognitive science, linguistics, neuroscience, psychology, and philosophy. It gives new and unexpected answers to classic questions about knowledge, creativity, understanding, reason, and invention.

A Daughter's Cry and a Father's Response Annaika Dastine,2025-01-14 But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (Romans 5:8) Do you find yourself struggling with the question of whether God cares about you? Or does your existence in this world matter? Or what is your purpose in this world? If you have a deep desire to understand the spiritual battle that is waging for you not to experience the fullness of God in your life, this is the book for you. Yes, demons are real! Yes, demons use the human body to manifest their destruction! Yes, demons have no power over you unless you invite them! Yes, the only way to overcome demons in this world is through Jesus Christ! Yes, God's power through Jesus Christ is much more powerful than the demons who are striving to destroy your life! Yes, Jesus is waiting for you to come just as you are to transform you into the wholesome spiritual being you were created to be! Yes, the Bible is a love letter from God on how to equip ourselves for battle in spiritual warfare! My life is a testimony that Jesus Christ leaves no one behind if you call on His name and you are willing to be transformed into your spiritual destiny. As you read the My First Encounter with Jesus devotional, you will realize my journey with Jesus is not your typical conversion story. Each devotional and weekly reflection from this book was inspired by God's Holy Spirit in my daily desire to grow deeper in my relationship with God. Not to become another religious person or to gain head knowledge but to allow the Word of God to infuse my life as I strive to fight the spiritual warfare that we face daily. And that is my sincere hope and prayer for each person who opens this book.

Date Me, Baby, One More Time Stephanie Rowe,2007-12-19 If you think life is complicated, try immortality. Justine Bennett is cursing her life. She's the Guardian of the Goblet of Eternal Youth, she hasn't left the house in ages, and it's been over 200 years since she's had sex. Oh, and the Goblet has shape shifted into an espresso machine. Not exactly the stuff grand destiny is made of... Derek LaValle is worried. Due to a family curse, he'll be dead in the space of a week unless he finds the Guardian of the Goblet of Eternal Youth and beheads her. Which wouldn't be a problem if she wasn't so sexy, smart... and ready to behead him right back.

Christianity and Horror Cinema Bryan P. Stone, 2025-06-25 Christianity and Horror Cinema explores ways that Christian beliefs, spiritualities, practices, and symbols provide the religious and existential depths out of which the monsters of Western horror cinema have emerged, arguing that they are, in several respects, the monsters for which Christians are responsible. Horror cinema preys on Christianity's narrative, moral, cultural, and aesthetic traditions; reverses them; upends them; inverts them; and offends them. But it also reflects and relies on them. The book focuses on seven subgenres in the cinema of horror: ghosts, witches, the demonic or Satanic, vampires, nature horror, zombies, and psychological horror. Each chapter traces the history of that subgenre, taking up a theological analysis of ways that horror cinema capitalizes on ambiguities, contradictions, anxieties, and tensions in Christianity—for example, its treatment of the body, nature, sexuality, women, or those it deems pagan or religiously other. The author examines a variety of films that are important for thinking about the relationship of Christianity to horror cinema. The book will be of interest to scholars of religion, theology, and film studies.
