The Economy of Salvation Luigino Bruni,2019-03-11 This book provides a systematic commentary on the first two books of the Bible: Genesis and Exodus. Drawing on these two essential books, it subsequently offers new readings of several issues relevant for today's economic and social life. Western Humanism has its own founding cultural and symbolic codes. One of them is the Bible, which has for millennia provided a wealth of expressions on politics and love, death and economy, hope and doom. Biblical stories have been revived and reinterpreted by hundreds of generations, and have informed many of our most beautiful works of art, not to mention the dreams of children and adults alike. And they have given us hope during the many painful times of exile and oppression that we have gone through, and are going through still. Among the books of the Bible, in both the Jewish and Christian traditions, Genesis and Exodus represent the true foundation of biblical theology and anthropology, but in them we also find the roots of the culture of markets, money and commerce, which would go on to flourish during the Middle Ages and ultimately form the 'spirit of capitalism' (Max Weber) or the 'religion of capitalism' (Walter Benjamin) in the modern era. This book examines the Biblical foundations of our conception of social relations, and offers new insights on the present economic and social discourse.

IS TITHING GOD'S ECONOMIC PRINCIPLE FOR CHRISTIANS? Dr Innocent Alozie,2017-04-11 The issue of tithing is a critical issue amongst believers. The first tithe payer in the Bible was Abraham. In Genesis 14:18-20, the scriptures says, Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was the Priest of God Most High. And he blessed him and said: Blessed be Abram of the Most High, Possessor of Heaven and earth; and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he (Abraham) gave him (Melchizedek) tithe of all. The tithe was paid from the goods he gathered after the defeat of the four kings led by Chedorlaomer, king of Elam. This first recorded tithe payment was hundreds of years before Moses was born and by extension before the Law was given through Moses. From this we know that tithing Pre-dates the Law.

Saving Our Sons from the Traps of the Enemy Sarah Haley,2020-10-25 The devil tried fiercely to sabotage her marriage in its infancy stage (She has been married for 30 years). The Voodoo Doctor has only limited information on a child of God. The Palm Reader could see that Sarah would be tortured, but couldn't see that Sarah's God would help her, come in and be a light to her, and cause her to win. Sarah prayed to God for a husband with a specific request, God answered her through a dream, she met exactly the man she saw in the dream. Sarah was lied on, taken to jail and booked and returned to her hair salon in less than 30 minutes. The clients stay in the salon some under the dryer until she returned, by the police officers. Through Spiritual Warfare Sarah prevented a suicide demon for killing one of her sons. Sarah heard the voice of God throughout her mission, therefore she would not stop saving her sons for the traps of the enemy. Sarah turned into a strong woman of faith and courage through many challenges.

Setting Our Hearts upon the Deep Henry L. Novello,2022-12-22 In Christian churches, the "Why Lord?" and "How long Lord?" prayers of the Jewish lament tradition have fallen silent. This is astonishing given that Jesus' fidelity to the cause of God culminates in his lament cry on Calvary, which was "heard" by God (Heb 5:7), who did not hide his face (Ps 22:24) but responded by raising him up in glory. In Christ's paschal mystery, grief (lament) and joy (praise) are inextricably intertwined. So why is lament not incorporated into praise in church usage? How can we not lament as we strive to embody Christ in an unredeemed world? The book examines reasons for the neglect of lament in the New Testament and theological tradition. The pivotal section of the work situates Jesus in the tradition of the suffering righteous in which Psalm 22 stands and it proposes a theological (not juridical) interpretation of Jesus' cry, which refutes the God-abandonment thesis: Jesus' cry reveals his abandonment to God, not his abandonment by God! Because God was “for” and “with” Jesus, we know that God is “for” and “with” us in our own cries, which are joined to Jesus’ cry, and we are redeemed. Redemption, then, consists in human and divine suffering coming together to transform grief and evil into joy and newness of life.

Power That Preserves Stephen R. Donaldson,2012-05-16 “A trilogy of remarkable scope and sophistication.”—Los Angeles Times Twice before Thomas Covenant had been summoned to the strange otherworld where magic worked. Twice before he had been forced to join with the Lords of Revelstone in their war against Lord Foul, the ancient enemy of the Land. Now he was back—to a Land ravaged by the armies of Lord Foul. The Lords were besieged and helpless. No place was safe, and Foul's victory seemed certain. Only Covenant could avert it. Desperately and without hope, he set out to confront the might of the Enemy. Along with him traveled a Giant, a Bloodguard, and the madwoman he had wronged. And in Foul's Creche, Lord Foul grew in power with each new defeat for the Land. . . .
