Heart Full of Lies Ann Rule, 2003-10-14 From #1 New York Times bestselling true-crime author Ann Rule comes “a convincing portrait of a meticulous criminal mind” (The Washington Post) in this chilling tale about a beautiful and charming widow with a dark side. An idyllic Hawaiian wedding held the promise of a wonderful future for handsome, athletic Chris Northon, an airline pilot, a confirmed bachelor-turned-devoted family man; and Liysa, an acclaimed surf photographer, loving mother, and aspiring Hollywood screenwriter. But few, including Chris, had seen Liysa's other side—her controlling behavior and dark moods, her insatiable hunger for money and property. And no one anticipated the fatal outcome of a family camping trip in an Oregon forest. Liysa soon revealed herself as a victim of domestic abuse that culminated at the campsite, where she shot Chris in self-defense. But crime scene evidence led detectives to wonder if Liysa was a killer, not a victim. Her controversial trial stunned all who thought they knew her. A lifetime of sociopathic manipulations and lies had been expertly hidden behind her façade of perfection—as was her rage to destroy any obstacle to her ultimate happiness, even if it was the man she vowed to love forever.

Heart Full of Lies Ann Rule, 2001-01-01 Liysa Northon was stunningly attractive and charming, with a core of loyal supporters who refused to believe she could be guilty of a horrendous crime--in this case, the cold-blooded execution of her handsome husband, Chris. With firsthand testimony from the Northon's friends and family, this brilliant investigative work travels from Hawaii to Texas to Hollywood as it tracks the remorseless steps of a woman who used the many men who loved her as stepping stones to wealth and fame.

Heart Full of Lies delves into the perplexing murder case that shook the serene Oregon Alps. In 2000, district attorney Dan Ousley faced a confounding murder in Wallowa County, where undersheriff Rich Stein discovered a body by the Lostine River. Liysa Ann Northon, the wife of the deceased, claimed self-defense against her husband, Chris Northon, after a violent altercation during a camping trip...

The Heart of God Jung Ae Lee, 2017-09-01 I have forgotten myself for many days while I was hearing the words of God, writing them, and editing them in the touch of the Holy Spirit since the day I began to experience the presence of God. When I was touched by the Holy Spirit, my body and mind were not mine, but these became instruments of God. I was I, but I was not I; I was I, but I could not move as I wish. Sometimes the quick voice of God came down and I wrote it. Sometimes the voice turned into sentences so that I was amazed to see them come into my mind and I wrote them down. These articles were not written one by one. When the Lord gave dozens of titles at a time, He also gave articles according to them. So I wrote down them. Sometimes I wrote articles without titles, and after writing He gave the titles. When I continue to write randomly, the former and the latter are often matched. Whatever message I received and wrote, I did not do anything for it. I wrote them only as an instrument of the Lord. And sometimes I entered into the hearts of the people the Holy Spirit has opened and I heard and wrote what their inner voices. There are also some articles that are based on what I heard from the conversations of others. In the mysterious and incredible world of God and the ministry of the Holy Spirit, I fell down before Him for twenty-six months in order to write these articles. The number of titles I received from Him was over one thousand and two hundred, and the number of articles I received was over nine hundred. When I received my first article, I prayed and God forcefully gave it to me. However, at this time I just pray in front of the keyboard in order to receive messages. I hope these messages from the Lord will reveal the greatness of the Lord and thereby I and all people glorify the Lord. I hope that the leaders and people who have broken God's heart will turn to the right attitude because of these messages of the Lord, and those who have made the Lord's heart sad will be the ones who please Him. Finally, at the end of each message of the Lord is provided the date or year of writing.

The Murder Mystique Laurie Nalepa, Richard Pfefferman, 2013-02-07 Although they account for only ten percent of all murders, those attributed to women seem especially likely to captivate the public. This absorbing book examines why that is true and how some women, literally, get away with murder. Combining compelling storytelling with insightful observations, the book invites readers to take a close look at ten high-profile killings committed by American women. The work exposes the forces that underlie the public's fascination with female killers and determine why these women so often become instant celebrities. Cases are paired by motive—love, money, revenge, self-defense, and psychopathology. Through them, the authors examine the appeal of women who commit murders and show how perceptions of their crimes are shaped. The book details both the crimes and the criminals as it explores how pop culture treats stereotypes of female murderers in film and print. True crime aficionados will be fascinated by the minute descriptions of what happened and why, while pop culture enthusiasts will appreciate the lens of societal norms through which these cases are examined.

A Nation in Crisis Ray C. Stedman, James Denney, 2018-10-19 Remember. Realize. Return. Beware. These four words summarize God's message through His prophet, Jeremiah, who tried to once again point Judah to the right path. The nation was slowly falling apart, losing its strength and forsaking God, as the people elevated themselves. It was a time very similar to our own. Ray Stedman takes you step-by-step through key passages in the book of Jeremiah, showing how the prophet faithfully followed God and called the people to repentance. For us today, Jeremiah stands as an example—that having faith in the living God can set us free in the midst of a decaying society.

The Elder Son Explained, and the Romish Church Exposed J. Church,2020-03-16 In The Elder Son Explained, and the Romish Church Exposed, J. Church deftly navigates the complex interplay between personal allegory and theological critique, centering on the parable of the elder son from the Gospel of Luke. Church employs a polemical style, interweaving narrative elements with rigorous theological analysis, reflecting the turbulent religious context of his time. This work not only seeks to unravel the moral dilemmas faced by the elder son but also serves as a sharp critique of the Roman Catholic Church, illuminating perceived contradictions and failures that Church contends obscure the path to true faith. J. Church, a prominent figure in the religious discourse of his era, was deeply influenced by the Reformation's call for spiritual authenticity and scriptural adherence. With a background steeped in both ecclesiastical studies and pastoral experience, Church's motivations stem from a sincere desire to challenge dogmatic traditions and advocate for a return to a more personal, direct engagement with Scripture. His insights reflect a broader movement within Protestant thought, seeking to empower individual believers against institutional authority. For readers interested in the intersections of faith, personal theology, and institutional critique, The Elder Son Explained stands as a compelling read. Church's eloquence and clarity invite readers to reflect on their own spiritual journeys and the implications of religious tradition on personal belief, making this work a resonant exploration for both scholars and laypersons alike.

Web of Spindled Time Tom Henderson, 2011-04 WEB OF SPINDLED TIME A Poetic Point of View A...spiritual journey unspooled in free verse, short prose and original artwork...the image of spindled time perfectly captures the experience of encountering Henderson's cosmic tome...This rhythmic alternation of inward and outward focus is one of Henderson's persistent themes, introduced in the prologue--Looking outward, at my world, / I observed the constant changes around me, / Peering inward, I analyzed / My own shifting feelings--and revisited frequently, most memorably in several examples of concrete poetry...Elsewhere, various narrators on numerous paths and journeys invariably learn how much they do not yet know. In Blakean fashion, Henderson strives to deconstruct the tension of man simultaneously seeing himself as the image of perfection and as a mere, and mortal, fool. Wisdom, he suggests, lies in unifying both visions, often via paradox. In The Flight of the Spirit, for instance, the narrator laments, I have searched for an escape. / But, death comes to all. / Escape then, is inevitable. / Life is short. After further contemplation, however, he instead concludes that chains are loosened by death. / The soul drifts into the freedom / Of eternity, / Forever has no end / If death is short / And life is everlasting. For all its lofty philosophical inquiries, Henderson's poetry is generally unadorned, marked by plain speech and the occasional simple rhyme scheme. Because the mystic nature of these revelations is likely to confound reason, the mind can be slow to believe...so reading in small doses may be the best approach. Readers who see spiritual perfection as a journey, rather than a destination, will appreciate Henderson as a fellow traveler.

Shakespeare and the Young Writer Fred Sedgwick, 2002-01-31 Shakespeare and the Young Writer presents fascinating and impressive accounts of primary school children encountering Shakespeare's work for the first time. Fred Sedgwick shows how careful selection of scenes, lines and images from the plays and sonnets - in their original language - can be used to great effect as the starting point for children's writing. Examples of children's work show just how powerful the stimulus can be. The book will be of great value to all teachers looking for new ideas to improve their practice in teaching literacy.

The Invisible Mask Catherine Hope,2019-05-09 Are you tired of feeling invisible and alone? There are few things worse than hiding behind an invisible mask with a fake smile, feeling unnoticed, unwanted, and desperately hoping that someone would notice the real you. Most of my life I struggled to fit in and to be accepted. I felt invisible and that I didn't have a voice. Through my journey of finding acceptance and purpose, I wrote my prayers to God in the form of poems and wrote moments that I encountered a lesson learned or a struggle. I needed an outlet, so I wrote. What I didn't expect was by doing so, I would find healing, acceptance, and love. I came to know of a loving Father who showed me that I wasn't invisible, but loved by Him and had a purpose. God had a purpose for my tears and put it on my heart to share my journey with others. You deserve to be noticed, cared for, and valued. You are not alone but loved. My prayer is with this book others can and will find comfort and hope as my struggles point them to a Loving God, Savior, and Friend.
