It's ok to say "the above image" but not "the below image" Jun 13, 2017 · The below image and the above image are writing conventions used to refer to a figure in terms of its relative position in the text. In the three-dimensional world of things, we say Noise was coming from the apartment above. You can put that book on the shelf below. P.S. I suppose above and below would be so-called "small clauses" here. Does "so that" need modals? - English Language Learners Stack ... Pay him a compliment so that he gives you one back. Duck so that they don't see us! *Note that each of the above examples needs little modification to also be able to take a modal, which demonstrates that though the greater use of so that is with ...
