

Los Estratos Del Tiempo Estudios Sobre La Historia

Israel Sanmartín,Francisco Peña

Los estratos del tiempo Reinhart Koselleck,2001 A partir del análisis de las alteraciones ocurridas en el uso y significado de los conceptos, la escuela de “historia de los conceptos” se propuso alumbrar transformaciones históricas más vastas de larga duración, y especialmente el sentido de la mutación cultural que se produjo entre 1750 y 1850 (período que para Koselleck marca la emergencia de la modernidad). Por debajo de tan monumental obra subyace una teoría de la historia o Historik, a la que dicho autor define como una “doctrina de las condiciones de posibilidad de historias”. Los que aquí se presentan son textos teóricos más recientes, en los que Koselleck plasma la formulación más sistemática hasta hoy de su Historik. En ellos retoma su proyecto original de una “crítica de la razón histórica” (un análisis de las condiciones de posibilidad de toda experiencia histórica), reformulándolo parcialmente. La introducción ha corrido a cargo de Elías José Palti, que recibió su título de doctorado en la Universidad de California en Berkeley. Actualmente es profesor de la Universidad de Quilmes e investigador del CONICET, en Argentina. Es autor de Giro lingüístico e historia intelectual, Aporías. Tiempo, modernidad, historia, sujeto, nación, ley y La invención de una legitimidad. Razón y retórica en el pensamiento mexicano del siglo XIX.

La literatura testimonial como memoria de las guerras en Colombia. Suárez Gómez, Jorge Eduardo,2016-08-15 En este trabajo se analizan dos libros testimoniales sobre las guerras en Colombia, Siguiendo el corte y 7 años secuestrado. Estudiados como memoria, discurso testimonial y narración, se evidencian entre los textos diferencias y puntos de encuentro. Los dos condensan la subjetividad de algunos testigos representativos que, desde diversos lugares de enunciación y ubicaciones temporales, narran su experiencia en medio de diversas guerras. Las obras así analizadas y complementadas con otras referencias testimoniales, periodísticas y académicas, se ubican en otras discusiones extratextuales relacionadas con la memoria, el conflicto y la literatura testimonial en Colombia.

The Longue Durée and World-Systems Analysis Richard E. Lee,2012-05-21 In his pathbreaking article History and the Social Sciences: The Longue Durée, Fernand Braudel raised a call for the social sciences to overcome their disciplinary isolation from one another. Commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the article's publication, the contributors to this volume do not just acknowledge their debt to the past; they also bear witness to how the crisis Braudel recognized a half century ago is no less of a crisis today. The contributions included here, from scholars in history, sociology, and geography, reflect the spirit and practice of the intellectual agenda espoused by Braudel, coming together around the concept of the longue durée. Indeed, they are evidence of how the groundbreaking research originally championed by Braudel has been carried forward in world-systems analysis for a more socially relevant understanding of the planet and its future possibilities. The book concludes with a new translation of Braudel's original article by famed sociologist Immanuel Wallerstein.

Crisis and Critique Rodrigo Cordero,2016-07-15 Fragility is a condition that inhabits the foundations of social life. It remains mostly unnoticed until something breaks and dislocates the sense of completion. In such moments of rupture, the social world reveals the stuff of which it is made and how it actually works; it opens itself to question. Based on this claim, this book reconsiders the place of the notions of crisis and critique as fundamental means to grasp the fragile condition of the social and challenges the normalization and dissolution of these 'concepts' in contemporary social theory. It draws on fundamental insights from Hegel, Marx, and Adorno as to recover the importance of the critique of concepts for the critique of society, and engages in a series of studies on the work of Habermas, Koselleck, Arendt, and Foucault as to consider anew the relationship of crisis and critique as immanent to the political and economic forms of modernity. Moving from crisis to critique and from critique to crisis, the book shows that fragility is a price to be paid for accepting the relational constitution of the social world as a human domain without secure foundations, but also for wishing to break free from all attempts at giving closure to social life as an identity without question. This book will engage students of sociology, political theory and social philosophy alike.

The Social and Solidarity Economy in Latin America Pablo Baisotti,Horacio López Muñoz,2021-06-14 This book explores the Social and Solidarity Economy (SSE) in Latin America. It highlights the challenges and possibilities for the countries of this region, and analyzes the evolution of the Social Economy's processes in order to ascertain its implications and social dimensions. The text also deals with solidarity alternatives in the capital market and the emergencies that occur in order to humanize the capitalist system.

An Archaeology of the Contemporary Era Alfredo Gonzalez-Ruibal,2024-09-04 The second edition of An Archaeology of the Contemporary Era explores the period between the late nineteenth and twenty-first centuries and reflects on the archaeological theory and practice of the recent past. This book argues that the materiality of our times, and particularly its ruins and rubbish, reveals something profound and disturbing about modern societies. It examines the political, ethical, aesthetic, and epistemological foundations of contemporary archaeology and characterizes the excess of the contemporary period through its material traces. This book remains the first attempt at describing the contemporary era from an archaeological point of view. Global in scope, the book brings together case studies from every continent and considers sources from peripheral and rarely considered traditions, meanwhile engaging in interdisciplinary dialogue with philosophy, anthropology, history, and geography. This new edition includes the latest developments in the field, both methodological and theoretical, and adds new and exciting case studies to engage students. It also covers some of the most pressing issues of the present, as they are being addressed by archaeologists, such as pandemics, the antiracist movement, the global rise of reactionary populism, the ecological crisis, and climate change. An Archaeology of the Contemporary Era is essential reading for students and practitioners of the contemporary past, historical archaeology, and archaeological theory. It will also be of interest to anybody concerned with globalization, modernity, and the Anthropocene.

Expecting the End of the World in Medieval Europe Israel Sanmartín,Francisco Peña,2024-09-12 Expecting the End of the World in Medieval Europe: An Interdisciplinary Study examines the phenomenon of medieval eschatology from a global perspective, both geographically and intellectually. The collected contributions analyze texts, authors, social movements, and cultural representations covering a wide period, from the 6th to the 16th century, in geographically liminal spaces where Catholic, Byzantine, Islamic, and Jewish cultures converged. The book is organized in eleven chapters which reflect and explore the following arguments: the study of specific eschatological episodes in medieval Europe and their interpretations; the analysis of apocalyptic visionaries, apocalyptic authors, and their individual contributions; the social and political implications of eschatology in medieval society; the study of medieval apocalyptic literature from a rhetorical, narratological, and historiographical perspective; the history of the transmission of apocalyptic literature and its transformation over time; and a comparative examination of apocalypticism between the Middle Ages and the Early Modern era. This study provides a lens through which academics, specialists, and interested researchers can observe and reflect on this entire eschatological universe, dwelling both on well-known texts, authors, and events, and on others which are much less popular. In gathering different paradigms, tools, and theoretical frameworks, the book exposes readers to the complex reality of medieval anxiety regarding the end of the world.

The Political Psychology of Social Unrest in Latin America Hüseyin Çakal,David Sirlopú,Vanessa Smith-Castro,2025-04-24 The Political Psychology of Social Unrest in Latin America is a unique collection of research and writings by Latin American scholars. It explores the social, psychological, and political factors of the recent turmoil in Latin American countries. From the ongoing political crisis in Venezuela, the impeachment demonstrations in Brazil, student movements in Chile, and massive demonstrations in Chile, Peru, Colombia, Ecuador, Bolivia, Venezuela, and Nicaragua, this edited volume analyses the underlying similarities and differences between these events through the lens of diverse research traditions, methods, and researchers. The book examines both actual inequalities and disadvantages as well as the role of perceptions of inequality and injustice. The authors also investigate the role of micro-processes, such as cultural consumption in the family, and the role of social psychological processes in historical Latin American unrest. By utilising leading approaches in social and political psychology and testing these approaches in the context of a very diverse and dynamic non-WEIRD (Western, Educated, Industrialized, Rich, and Democratic) societies, the authors bring the communities and civilizations less studied by Western social psychologists to the international audience. Focusing on how social and political processes unfold in different countries and providing insights into the psychological underpinnings of social unrest from a variety of perspectives, this is an essential reading for students and researchers of psychology, social, political, peace and cross-cultural psychology as well as political science and sociology.

A Cultural History of Objects in the Modern Age Laurie Wilkie, John Chenoweth, 2022-08-31 A Cultural History of Objects in the Modern Age covers the period 1900 to today, a time marked by massive global changes in production, transportation, and information-sharing in a post-colonial world. New materials and inventions - from plastics to the digital to biotechnology - have created unprecedented scales of disruption, shifting and blurring the categories and meanings of the object. If the 20th century demonstrated that humans can be treated like things whilst things can become ever more human, where will the 21st century take us? The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Objects examines how objects have been created, used, interpreted and set loose in the world over the last 2500 years. Over this time, the West has developed particular attitudes to the material world, at the centre of which is the idea of the object. The themes covered in each volume are objecthood; technology; economic objects; everyday objects; art; architecture; bodily objects; object worlds. Laurie A. Wilkie is Professor at the University of California-Berkeley, USA. John M. Chenoweth, is Associate Professor at the University of Michigan-Dearborn, USA. Volume 6 in the Cultural History of Objects set. General Editors: Dan Hicks and William Whyte

La arqueología entre la historia y la prehistoria Piazzini, Carlo Emilio, 2011-11-03 Desde el siglo xix la arqueología se ha concebido como una etnografía prehistórica o como una ciencia auxiliar de la historia, mientras que en las últimas décadas la certeza de que la disciplina no debe restringirse al pasado prehistórico explica el auge de las denominadas arqueologías históricas.

Forensic Anthropology Teams in Latin America Silvia Dutrénit-Bielous, 2019-11-06 This book charts the development of forensic anthropology teams in Latin America and surveys their main characteristics, achievements, and challenges in light of a recent past fraught with state repression and violence. The volume contains contributions by an interdisciplinary group of scholars from several Latin American universities, with chapters on Argentina, Chile, Uruguay, Peru, Guatemala, and Mexico. These countries' shared legacy is a host of human rights violations that continue to have an impact on present day society. Following the move towards democracy and a public demand for truth and justice, the volume highlights the role of forensic anthropology teams and their contribution as a source of information for the historical narrative, as a legal asset in enforcing the right to truth, and in achieving reparation for victims. This collection will be of interest to scholars from Anthropology, Latin American Studies, Politics, and History.

Recorridos de la historia cultural en Colombia Cepeda, Hernando, Vargas, Sebastián, 2019-12-30 Este libro recoge quince años de experiencias investigativas en el campo de la historia cultural. A modo de conmemoración, este volumen presenta trece textos, producidos a lo largo de una década y media de labores académicas del grupo de investigación Prácticas culturales, Representaciones e Imaginarios. Inicialmente pensado como un equipo interesado en la discusión de obras claves para el campo de las ciencias sociales, el grupo devino en una comunidad académica identificada por su pasión hacia la historia cultural. En esta medida, gran parte de los documentos que componen este libro ofrecen un amplio panorama de la trayectoria general del grupo. Si bien el volumen es amplio y variado, el énfasis en la historia cultural lo cohesiona. La obra está compuesta por diferentes contribuciones que representan diferentes maneras de entender y poner en práctica la historia cultural.

Worlds Ending. Ending Worlds Jenny Stümer, Michael Dunn, 2023-12-04 The notion of apocalypse is an age-old concept which has gained renewed interest in popular and scholarly discourse. The book highlights the versatile explications of apocalypse today, demonstrating that apocalyptic transformations – the various encounters with anthropogenic climate change, nuclear violence, polarized politics, colonial assault, and capitalist extractivism – navigate a range of interdisciplinary views on the present moment. Moving from old worlds to new worlds, from world-ending experiences to apocalyptic imaginaries and, finally, from authoritarianism to activism and advocacy, the contributions begin to map the emerging field of Apocalyptic and Post-Apocalyptic Studies. Foregrounding the myriad ways in which collective imaginations of apocalypse underpin ethical, political, and, sometimes, individual experience, the authors provide key points of reference for understanding old and new predicaments that are transforming our many worlds.

Discursive Processes of Intergenerational Transmission of Recent History M. Achugar, 2016-04-12 Debates about how to remember politically contested or painful pasts exist throughout the world. As with the case of the Holocaust in Europe and Apartheid in South Africa, South American countries are struggling with the legacy of state terrorism left by the 1970s dictatorships. Coming to terms with the past entails understanding the role different social actors played in those events as well as what those events mean for us today. Young people in these situations have to learn about painful historical events over which there is no national consensus. This book explores discursive processes of intergenerational transmission of recent history through the case of the Uruguayan dictatorship. The main themes of the book are the discursive construction of social memory and intergenerational transmission of contested pasts through recontextualization, resemiotization and intertextuality.

Slavery and Politics Márcia Berbel, Rafael Marquese, Tâmis Parron, 2016-03-15 The politics of slavery and slave trade in nineteenth-century Cuba and Brazil is the subject of this acclaimed study, first published in Brazil in 2010 and now available for the first time in English. Cubans and Brazilians were geographically separate from each other, but they faced common global challenges that unified the way they re-created their slave systems between 1790 and 1850 on a basis completely departed from centuries-old colonial slavery. Here the authors examine the early arguments and strategies in favor of slavery and the slave trade and show how they were affected by the expansion of the global market for tropical goods, the American Revolution, the Haitian Revolution, the collapse of Iberian monarchies, British abolitionism, and the international pressure opposing the transatlantic slave trade. This comprehensive survey contributes to the comparative history of slavery, placing the subject in a global context rather than simply comparing the two societies as isolated units.

La perfidia de los indios las bondades del gobierno Patricia Guerrero,2014-03-01

Memorias en lucha Lorena, Cañuqueo,Brígida, Baeza,Fabiana, Nahuelquir,Ana Margarita, Ramos,Mariela Eva, Rodríguez,Lea Natalia, Geler,Mariana Isabel, Lorenzetti,Stephanie, McCallum,Celina, San Martín,Lucrecia, Petit,María Alma, Tozzini,2016-12-12 ¿Cómo se construye la memoria en contextos de subordinación? Los inmigrantes, los afrodescendientes y los pueblos indígenas, entre otros, despliegan reflexiones sobre su propia memoria. En el contexto de luchas sociales y vida cotidiana, se estimulan preguntas y aproximaciones sobre la memoria, los silencios, los secretos y los olvidos, la materialidad y el futuro.

La experiencia como hecho social Santiago Carassale Real,Liliana Martínez Pérez,Jorge Luis Lavín García,Luis Manuel Hernández Aguilar,Federico Gobato,Lucio Israel Cervantes Porrúa,Carlos Nazario Mora Duro,Eufemio Franco Pimentel,Jorge Eduardo Suárez Gómez,2016-11-01 Esta obra discierne sobre la experiencia enmarcándola desde la sociología cultural y sus artes, sus modos de hacer y de representarse. Destaca el ejercicio paralelo entre la experiencia investigada y la de investigar. Reflexionando desde conceptos clave como experiencia, red de significados y performance, se tocan temas como la observación participante y sus consecuencias; la manera en la que una entrevista afecta los resultados de una investigación, y la transformación de la conciencia histórica a partir de la experiencia y la expectativa. Desentrañar la relación entre hechos de trascendencia social y su elaboración narrativa es la aportación de este trabajo.

Ideas en Educación II Ignacio Sánchez D.,2018 La educación ha sido tema recurrente de análisis y discusión en el último tiempo. Tras la publicación hace dos años del libro "Ideas en educación. Reflexiones y propuestas desde la UC", se ha hecho necesario actualizar los contenidos, la información y propuestas a la luz de las modificaciones, avances y retrocesos que se han producido en el ámbito de la educación. Al igual que en el primer volumen, el objetivo es aportar a la discusión con una visión crítica y constructiva. Un grupo de destacados académicos e investigadores de la UC -la mayoría de ellos participaron también en el libro anterior- abordan, con una mirada renovada, temas como la autonomía universitaria, el marco regulatorio de la educación, el aseguramiento de la calidad, la educación inicial, las políticas de inclusión, la ley de desmunicipalización, la carrera docente, la educación técnico-profesional, el acceso y admisión a la educación superior, las formas de financiamiento, el desarrollo de las ciencias y la innovación, los estudiantes con necesidades educativas especiales, el aprendizaje de la diversidad y la formación ciudadana, entre otros. Se incluyen también nuevos enfoques que forman parte integral del quehacer educativo, particularmente en la educación superior. Estos son la formación general, el programa de Licenciatura en Estudios Generales o College y el área de gestión de asuntos estudiantiles. En varios temas el libro expresa más de una visión, lo cual da cuenta de la diversidad, del pluralismo y de la riqueza de la investigación de los académicos.

Defensas Colectivas del Territorio en América Latina: persistencias y mutaciones Leonardo Garavito González, Germán Cortés Millán, 2023 Esta publicación agrupa 17 capítulos derivados de trabajos de investigación. La primera parte se enfoca en América Latina e incluye ocho estudios localizados en Argentina, Chile y México. En estos se destaca la necesidad de pensar lo territorial como una categoría en disputa en escenarios sociopolíticos donde el modelo hegemónico de mercado ha impulsado dispositivos de control, prácticas privatizadoras o extractivistas. Por lo tanto, para buena parte de las comunidades y movimientos sociales la defensa territorial es una apuesta que articula tanto los esfuerzos para la denuncia y la resistencia, como para la realización de acciones que dignifican y transforman las condiciones de vida en los territorios. La segunda parte profundiza en el caso colombiano por medio de nueve capítulos. Un tema persistente en estos es la lucha por la tierra y la denuncia de diversas injusticias territoriales. Lo anterior suele ser acompañado de dificultades como una baja articulación entre actores (públicos, privados y comunitarios) y escalas territoriales (local, regional y nacional). Asimismo, se identifica una violencia persistente en contra de los líderes sociales, territoriales y ambientales. En este sentido, es relevante el desarrollo de marcos de compresión y acción que permitan que la participación social y política trascienda de lo exclusivamente consultivo hacia lo más decisorio. En contraste, algunas mutaciones señalan que la defensa territorial en el país, concentrada tradicionalmente en los territorios rurales, tiende a desdoblar hacia los espacios urbanos y digitales. Por otra parte, emergen igualmente protagonismos de nuevos actores colectivos liderados por mujeres, jóvenes o grupos interculturales.
