Daniel Allington, Barbara Mayor

Business and Service Telephone Conversations Cecilia Varcasia, 2013-10-16 This book considers the sequential deployment of the receiver's response to the caller's request in telephone service encounters between native speakers in the U.K, Germany and Italy analysing the different response formats and their grammatical configuration.

Communicating in English Daniel Allington, Barbara Mayor, 2022-10-30 Communicating in English: Talk, Text, Technology looks at how people use spoken and written English to communicate in their everyday lives. Exploring the complex relationship between communication, technology and the English language, this book offers the reader practical insights into the analysis of speech and writing. A wide range of examples is provided, ranging from text messages and domestic quarrels to the works of Shakespeare and the words of Martin Luther King. This book takes a fresh look at established topics such as rhetoric, language acquisition, and professional communication, as well as covering exciting new fields such as everyday creativity, digital media, and the history of the book. Key theoretical concepts are introduced in an accessible manner, and the reader is given an in-depth understanding of English-language communication in its social and historical contexts. Drawing on the latest research and on the Open University's experience of producing accessible and innovative texts, this book: • explains basic concepts and assumes no previous study of English studies, communication studies or linguistics • features a range of source material and commissioned readings to supplement chapters • includes contributions from leading experts in their fields, including Naomi Baron, Deborah Cameron, Guy Cook, Janet Holmes and Almut Koester • has a truly international scope, encompassing examples and case studies from Europe, North America, Africa, Asia, and Australasia • is illustrated in full colour and includes a comprehensive index. Communicating in English: Talk, Text, Technology is essential reading for all students of English language studies or communication studies.

Teach Business English Sylvie Donna, 2000-07-27 Teach Business English provides a comprehensive introduction to Business English for teachers who are new to the field, and inspiration and guidance for those already involved in this area of teaching. This book deals with a range of issues from needs analysis and course planning to assessment and evaluation. It also suggests solutions to common teaching problems. The emphasis throughout is practical and a large part of the book focuses on classroom procedures. There are activities for all the major skill areas and most can be used with minimal preparation. Notes on key areas are included, as well as sample correspondence, test items, worksheets and forms. The quick-reference index allows for easy access to the guidelines and classroom procedures.

IT’S TALK TIME -5 ,2024-02-21 Welcome to the fascinating world of English Conversation! The series ‘It’s Talk Time’ tailored for students from classes 1 to 8, is a journey of language exploration and communication enrichment. Our primary aim is to make the process of learning English conversation both enjoyable and effective, along with building a strong foundation in the language for young learners. The series has been integrated with the New Education Policy (2020) and the National Curriculum Framework (2023) focusing on the 21st Century Skills such as Communication, Collaboration, Creativity and Innovation, Critical Thinking, Information Literacy, Health Awareness, Social and Cross-cultural Interaction and Global Awareness. The books are designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of English conversation, beginning with the basics and gradually advancing to more complex language structures and contexts. Each book in the series offers a progression of conversational topics, practical exercises, and real-life scenarios that resonate with the experiences and interests of young learners. Our aim is to make language learning a natural part of everyday life, where students can apply what they’ve learned in meaningful ways. The series has been thoughtfully crafted to empower students with the skills they need to express themselves clearly and confidently. The accompanying audio resources, available online, are additional valuable tools to help students improve their listening and pronunciation skills. As we embark on this exciting journey, let’s embrace the art of English conversation and unlock the doors to new friendships, knowledge, and opportunities.

We hope that the books will instill in students a lifelong love for the English language, and the confidence to converse fluently, express their thoughts with clarity, and connect with the world.

All about Them Bruce Turkel, 2016-09-06 The best companies and most successful salespeople live by a three-word mantra—all about them—because when they relentlessly focus their brand on their customers instead of themselves, their businesses flourish. All about Them shows readers how to use this simple but extremely powerful influencing technique. Bruce Turkel, who has advised some of the world's greatest companies, including American Express and Bacardi, lays the groundwork by relating his personal journey of discovery to the All about Them principle. He goes on to explore our technology-driven, hyper-connected culture; the power of storytelling (and story-selling); brand authenticity and transparency; and more.

Yes! on Demand Kathy L. Middleton, 2016-11-21 Borrowing winning techniques from the business world, this book examines ways you can make library service more personalized, focused, and solutions-oriented for your patrons. When it comes to delivering the quality, personalized service your patrons expect, the staff is the most important resource in the library. It only follows then, that by empowering staff, breaking and fixing rules, cultivating creativity, and focusing on results, your library can meet and exceed patron expectations. To help you accomplish that and more, this book presents the yes model for customer service and explains how to use the model to build morale and grow a loyal, engaged, and highly satisfied community. The book shows how techniques borrowed from successful retail models can be applied to every part of library service—from reference, circulation, and technology services to children's and adult services. Beginning chapters describe the role of staff in transforming a culture of no into one of yes. Next are explanations of tools administrators can use to support changes that will lead to a more contented customer base. Finally, the book addresses how to eliminate no through personalized service and by defining and tearing down obstacles that often block use of library products and services. This approach not only will make for happier patrons but will build staff morale, foster support, and ensure that your library remains relevant for years to come.

A New Guide to Conversation, in Spanish and English G. Hamonière, 1824

English Pedagogy Henry Barnard, 1876

Mediated Business Interactions Rosina Marquez Reiter, 2011-07-07 This is the first monograph to examine mediated business interaction in Spanish. It focuses on communication between native speakers of Spanish from different Spanish-speaking countries with a view to informing our understanding of intercultural communication in a contemporary business environment. Using elements of pragmatics with tools from conversation analysis, the book examines the various activities that telephone conversationalists engage in to supply and demand a service over the phone through the mediational means of Spanish by addressing the following questions.* Do speakers of Spanish display similar communicative practices as those observed in other languages when requesting and being offered a service over the phone?* Do specifically located activities such as the call openings and closings display similar coordination and ritualisation as that observed in other languages?* Does the language seen as a cultural tool reflect a different orientation towards such activities?* What strategies do telephone agents and (prospective) clients employ to obtain a sale and either procure the best value for money or obviate it, respectively? And, what role does intercultural communication play in the construction of these practices?
