Harold Lerch

From Adam to Babylon Harold Lerch, 2024-09-17 First and Second Chronicles include the most complete collection of genealogical records in the Bible linking redemptive history to the focal point in David: Messiah Jesus descends from King David, Noah, and Adam. Topics also include events from First and Second Kings, the building of the First Temple, the Kingdom of Judah, Great Revival, and Babylonian captivity. The Chronicles include some of the greatest history found in the Old Testament.

Biblical Studies on the Internet Roland H. Worth, Jr., 2008-09-18 The new edition includes more than 4,800 resources available at more than 10,000 Internet sites that provide information on a range of biblical study topics including Bible translations in English and other languages, audio translations of the Bible in English and other languages, commentaries, dictionaries, and other resource materials including ones in Greek, Hebrew and other ancient languages. The author also has adopted a new method of referencing and cataloging the most widely used web pages to facilitate a major expansion of resources without increasing the physical length of the book itself. In cases when ten or more resources are listed on a single web page, the author has assigned the web page a three-digit code. The code is used to identify this web page as a major resource within the main text, while any needed instructions for use of the site are cross-referenced separately in the final chapter. In adopting this concise method, the author was able to add hundreds of additional or updated web resources, a surprising number of which can be downloaded onto a hard drive for immediate and continued use.

Genesis: After the Flood Harold Lerch,2024-07-01 Genesis is the foundation of the entire Bible. Genesis records the beginning of the heavens and the earth, and of plant, animal, and human life. It voices the rebirth and the new creation which followed the world-wide flood's chaos and ruin. The problem of Adam's "first sin" has affected man's condition on the earth and his relationship to God. This first, or "original sin remained with those who disembarked the ark and continues with us today. Yet God made eight great covenants with man including four in the Book of Genesis: the Edenic, the Adamic, Noahic, and Abrahamic Covenants. The latter is included in this text of Genesis Two. Genesis scriptures are found within the New Testament and is quoted more than sixty times in seventeen of the twenty-seven books. So the roots of all subsequent prophecy is planted in Genesis. Genesis is not a book of myths as many non-believing speakers would state. Modern archaeology witnesses to the historical reliability of Genesis and the Bible.

The Exodus: The Story and Evidence Harold Lerch, 2024-08-06 The Books of Exodus and Numbers describe miraculous intervention by God in the Israelite escape from Egypt. The only Israelite requirement was faith in God. After the escape, God gave The Law to His people and established proper worship. God also taught Israel His just requirements which convicted Israel of sin, the provisions of priesthood, and the way of forgiveness, cleansing, and restoration to fellowship. God also led them to build a Tabernacle and connected Himself with the His People through His covenants with Abraham and Moses. He lived among them in the cloud of glory that led them through the wilderness. The years of wandering lasted forty years. The Israelites were rescued from Egypt, led by Moses, possessing The Law and the Tabernacle, and supernaturally guided by a cloud and pillar of fire. It should have been easy to follow the perfect will of God following all the miracles and leadership of Moses, but they failed repeatedly, as the Book of Numbers details.

Prophecy: The Minor Prophets Harold Lerch, 2024-03-02 This book is the last in a series of four books about prophecy. This volume is about the often-overlooked minor prophets. In reality, they include very interesting information about events that happened after their time and events still in our future. Amos, Hosea, Micah, and Nahum wrote in the Eighth and Seventh Centuries BC [Before Christ] about coming judgment. Joel, Jonah, Zephaniah, and Habakkuk wrote in the Ninth through Seventh Centuries BC about faith and repentance. Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi wrote in the Eighth and Seventh Centuries BC. Haggai's ministry was to scold the returned exiles for their delay in rebuilding the Temple and to encourage them to set to work. Zechariah predicted the second coming of Christ, His reign, His priesthood, His kingship, and more. Malachi is the final prophet with the last message of the Old Testament. It includes the hope in the prophecy of John the Baptist's ministry. This series is contained in four books. The whole scope of prophecy must be considered in determining the meaning of any particular passage. Therefore, a reading of all four books will greatly improve understanding. This volume includes a bonus chapter— The Book of Revelation.

What God told Moses Harold Lerch, 2024-10-18 The theme of Leviticus is “Holiness. This book by Moses is devoted to worship by the redeemed people, the Israelites. This is shown by the frequent use of words concerning “holiness” and “sacrifice.” The topic of sacrifice pervades the book. The words holiness and holy, appear more than 150 times. Also, God’s commandment is often repeated, You shall be holy, for I am holy. Deuteronomy means “The Second Law” with the theme “The Law Restated.” The book was written by Moses at about the same time as Leviticus. Deuteronomy begins with an overview of the history of Israel, then reviews the basic laws of the preceding books [Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers] and concludes with a series of prophecies of the Israelite final return to Palestine.
