Beauty and Light (Nefes Yayinevi) Cemalnur Sargut, As a female Sufi teacher, Cemalnur Sargut commands a loyal and active worldwide following, especially in Turkey. Her career as a scholar and Sufi leader represents an important case study in the dynamics of contemporary global Sufism. This volume represents the first text in English translation that brings together some of her major discourses and teachings as presented to her students through the genre of oral discourses. More specifically, the discourses that form the core of this book were collected through oral interviews with Cemalnur conducted by her students as part of a weekly program aired on a national Turkish radio station. The original Turkish transcription on which this English translation is based is titled Dinle (Listen), and was published in 2012 by Nefes Press. Cemalnur has been actively training disciples and students in the teachings and practices of the Rifa'i Sufi order for the last forty years. While her oral and written discourses are widely available in Turkish, they have until now remained inaccessible to an English language audience.

Suicide and the Self Dariusz Galasiński,Justyna Ziółkowska,2025-07-28 This book centres on self-accounts of suicidal behavior, using a Critical Discourse Analysis (CDA) approach to offer a qualitative perspective within current suicidology and suicide prevention research. Suicide and the Self: A Discourse Analysis Approach to Self-Narratives of Suicide is the first qualitative study to explore suicide through the eyes of the person experiencing it. The volume is grounded in foundational CDA concepts, which view social reality as constructed through language and draw on data from real people's writings, interviews, visual representations, and farewell letters to understand the discursive resources and linguistic patterns in these narratives from varied temporal perspectives. By focusing on how individuals construct their own stories, Galasiński and Ziółkowska show how a discourse analytic approach can enrich suicidological research and inform suicide prevention efforts. This book is essential reading for scholars in suicidology, medical humanities, allied health, and discourse analysis.

Solo Passage Glenda Goodrich, 2025-07-30 In her search to find healing and meaning in midlife, Glenda Goodrich undertakes a series of wilderness quests into the backcountry of Oregon, Washington, and California to discover what the natural world has to teach her about life, death, happiness, spirituality, and forgiveness. This book chronicles the sacred ceremonies that connected Goodrich to the land, wove her into nature's web, and transformed her from a woman who worked to please others into a woman who forged her own path. It is a brilliant collection of adventures—the touch of coyote fur, a snake's kiss, a ceremonial blood offering—and a profound reflection on the healing and restorative power of nature.

Addiction—God'S Healing Duly Noted, 2018-02-21 I was just your run-of-the-mill alcoholic who God saw fit to rescue! For close to forty years, I struggled with addiction, and as time went on, it always got worse quicker and got more intense after any period of clean time. It was not until this unprofessional writer put God like I never had him before in my life and also after a proven twelve-step program that I was able to get and stay sober one day at a time. I was bankrupt in all ways financially, emotionally, mentally (at times I couldn't remember my name), and almost spiritually. I turned a perfectly good life into a perfect mess by choice. Why? I ended up at a few homeless shelters. Family and friends were asking (begging) me to get out of my hometown, Buffalo, New York, because I was going to die as the whole city turned into a people, places, and things place that people are warned about in recovery. Today I tell God, people at recovery meetings, family, and friends, I have the best life of anybody I know, and I believe it! God gets and deserves all the glory, all the honor, and all the praise that my family and friends give to me. God blessed me with one grandchild (daughter) and another one on the way. At recovery meetings, they say, Rarely have we seen a person fail who has thoroughly followed our path. That is so true! According to Matthew 6:33, Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added onto you. Thank you! God bless you! Glenn

The Idiot's Guide to Magic Louise Kennedy, 2019-03-15 If you picked up this book hoping to learn how to pull a rabbit out of a hat or master random tricks and illusions, then you're going to be disappointed. This book leads you on a journey into the unknown—but not one revolving around sleight-of-hand games. Rather, it's a quest to learn all that we are meant to come here and realise. It seeks to discover what all religions and spiritual systems have at their core as well as what all wise people have sought throughout the ages: self-knowledge. Realising that you're responsible for what you create, how you perceive things, and what happens to you is tremendously liberating. If you can come to that realisation, you'll be equipped to create a new and more rewarding life. Join the author as she looks back at pursuing truth as a professional singer, spiritual healer, intuitive coach, and student of the occult, yoga, reincarnation, spirituality and more in An Idiot's Guide to Magic.

Dynamics in the History of Religions Between Asia and Europe Volkhard Krech, Marion Steinicke, 2011-11-25 The conference volume of the Bochumer Kolleg "Dynamics in the History of Religions between Asia and Europe" outlines the thesis that religion is not a homogeneous cultural phenomenon, but a dense network of diachronically and synchronically differing traditions.

Selimi shares inspiring actual client stories who have used the five-principles to successfully liberate themselves from the emotional baggage and distress by fully completing the five-step method.
