Love Notes & Karmic Quotes Mishmah O. Ayodeji, 2024-12-04 TODAY IS THE WHERE YESTERDAY AND TOMORROW SPEND THE NIGHT CONJOINED Life is a multi-dimensional journey we embark upon from the moment we are born. Whatever path we engage upon or choose to travel is a result and reflection of many factors. Poetry and poetical literature are tools in the arsenal we acquire early in life, figuratively, from the cradle to the grave. Poems serve as mirrors through which we are able to reflect as well as project our expectations, hopes, wishes, and dreams for the future. This book is a compendium of inspirational writing and poetry. Filled with imagery, symbols, and foreign languages, these devices serve as ways of identifying routes and places traveled by slaves, ancestors of this poet, as they voyaged from their Motherland, Africa, to North America. Weaved together in a systemic way, the reader is invited to emotionally and sympathetically travel the these journeys. The use of different languages as karmic quotes also provide keys to ancestral lineages. The use of languages and ancestry is a technique that serves as a creative way of bringing out many themes embedded in this present work. Themes such as love, self-awareness, individuality, self-determination, philosophical introspection, respect, and liberation invite readers to interact conversationally. Love Notes & Karmic Quotes is filled with poems that stimulate the imagination, and implore the reader to think deeply. True to form, this present work, candidly and majestically helps one to draw closer to oneself and to connect with others in a more compassionate way. Doing so, one develops a more profound sense of globalization, caring, humanness, thus, a greater desire for peace, happiness, wellness, and harmony. Like life itself, this collection of lyrical writing touches the heart of the reader, for it is a doorway to the inner soul, and electrifies one's very being. Each poem originates from an inner aspect, based upon personal experience or deep introspective exploration of an inner odyssey, even at the DNA level. When viewed at a glance, this book serves as a reminder as we journey through life, daily, we are writing love notes in our own Books of Life (Love). Habitually, doing so, we find balance and equanimity within and without as we learn to focus on peace, intuitively and vibrantly. Thus, in time, we will declare, I am love. I am loving, lovable, and I love you just as I love myself, no matter what language you speak, your ethnic background, or the color your skin. We are all lovely, beautiful, masterpieces of creation. Read Love Notes & Karmic Quotes, garner some of its profound wisdom, and enjoy its amazing creativity, as well as joyous beauty that life affords humanity.

Love, H Hettie Jones,2016-09-22 It works, we're in business, yeah Babe! So begins this remarkable selection from a forty-year correspondence between two artists who survived their time as wives in the Beat bohemia of the 1960s and went on to successful artistic careers of their own. From their first meeting in 1960, writer Hettie Jones—then married to LeRoi Jones (Amiri Baraka)—and painter and sculptor Helene Dorn (1927–2004), wife of poet Ed Dorn, found in each other more than friendship. They were each other's confidant, emotional support, and unflagging partner through difficulties, defeats, and victories, from surviving divorce and struggling as single mothers, to finding artistic success in their own right. Revealing the intimacy of lifelong friends, these letters tell two stories from the shared point of view of women who refused to go along with society's expectations. Jones frames her and Helene's story, adding details and explanations while filling in gaps in the narrative. As she writes, we'd fled the norm for women then, because to live it would have been a kind of death. Apart from these two personal stories, there are, as well, reports from the battlegrounds of women's rights and tenant's rights, reflections on marriage and motherhood, and contemplation of the past to which these two had remained irrevocably connected. Prominent figures such as Allen Ginsberg and Timothy Leary appear as well, making Love, H an important addition to literature on the Beats. Above all, this book is a record of the changing lives of women artists as the twentieth century became the twenty-first, and what it has meant for women considering such a life today. It's worth a try, Jones and Dorn show us, offering their lives as proof that it can be done.

Fab Howard Sounes,2010-10-26 He is one of the most famous, most wealthy people on the planet, and yet he remains little-known and understood as a personality. At long last, Paul McCartney is the subject of a major, deeply researched, psychologically acute biography. It tells a story that will illuminate and surprise. The publication finds McCartney - who turns 70 in 2012 - revitalized as a performer (touring with a set of mostly Beatles songs) and a man buffeted by profound changes in recent years: the death of his first wife, Linda; the death of George Harrison; a second marriage, to Heather Mills, and its spectacular failure, the fall-out from which is still crashing around him.

The Public Work of Christmas Pamela E. Klassen, Monique Scheer, 2019-06-15 Christmas is not a holiday just for Christians anymore, if it ever was. Embedded in calendars around the world and long a lucrative merchandising opportunity, Christmas enters multicultural, multi-religious public spaces, provoking both festivity and controversy, hospitality and hostility. The Public Work of Christmas provides a comparative historical and ethnographic perspective on the politics of Christmas in multicultural contexts ranging from a Jewish museum in Berlin to a shopping boulevard in Singapore. A seasonal celebration that is at once inclusive and assimilatory, Christmas offers a clarifying lens for considering the historical and ongoing intersections of multiculturalism, Christianity, and the nationalizing and racializing of religion. The essays gathered here examine how cathedrals, banquets, and carols serve as infrastructures of memory that hold up Christmas as a civic, yet unavoidably Christian holiday. At the same time, the authors show how the public work of Christmas depends on cultural forms that mark, mask, and resist the ongoing power of Christianity in the lives of Christians and non-Christians alike. Legislated into paid holidays and commodified into marketplaces, Christmas has arguably become more cultural than religious, making ever wider both its audience and the pool of workers who make it happen every year. The Public Work of Christmas articulates a fresh reading of Christmas - as fantasy, ethos, consumable product, site of memory, and terrain for the revival of exclusionary visions of nation and whiteness - at a time of renewed attention to the fragility of belonging in diverse societies. Contributors include Herman Bausinger (Tübingen), Marion Bowman (Open), Juliane Brauer (MPI Berlin), Simon Coleman (Toronto), Yaniv Feller (Wesleyan), Christian Marchetti (Tübingen), Helen Mo (Toronto), Katja Rakow (Utrecht), Sophie Reimers (Berlin), Tiina Sepp (Tartu), and Isaac Weiner (Ohio State).

I Will Hold My Candle and Other Stories for Christmas Dave Carver, 2011-08-01 What is the most beautiful sight in the world? For some, it's a beach at sunset. For others, it's the masterpiece hanging in an art museum. And for still others, it's the scoreboard showing the home team winning the championship. For Pastor Dave Carver, it's the image he sees each Christmas Eve as God's people sing Silent Night, Holy Night in the glow of their hand-held candles. Christmas Eve is, for Pastor Dave, a glimpse of how things are supposed to be: God's people gathered around the ancient text, the welcoming community, and the ever-living Story of the night that God became one of us. I Will Hold My Candle is a collection of short stories that Pastor Dave has written to help the people in his community engage the Greatest of Stories in new and fresh ways. Listen for the ways in which God's promises ring true in our world and allow Dave's imagination to spur your own.

Perhaps you will be able to see your life, or your neighbor, in a whole new light.

The Letters of Gertrude Stein and Carl Van Vechten, 1913-1946 Gertrude Stein, Carl Van Vechten, 2013 This monumental collection of correspondence between Gertrude Stein and critic, novelist, and photographer Carl Van Vechten provides crucial insight into Stein's life, art, and artistic milieu as well as Van Vechten's support of major cultural projects, such as the Harlem Renaissance. From their first meeting in 1913, Stein and Van Vechten formed a unique and powerful relationship, and Van Vechten worked vigorously to publish and promote Stein's work. Existing biographies of Stein—including her own autobiographical writings—omit a great deal about her experiences and thought. They lack the ordinary detail of what Stein called daily everyday living the immediate concerns, objects, people, and places that were the grist for her writing. These letters not only vividly represent those details but also showcase Stein and Van Vechten's private selves as writers. Edward Burns's extensive annotations include detailed cross-referencing of source materials.

Crafting Is Like You: Poem A Day Book For Crafters (Minecraft Crafting Guide, Crafting with Duct Tape, Crafting with Cat Hair, Crafting With Kids & Crafting Buttons Crafting Guide Poetry & Rhymes in Verses & Quotes for Crafting Poem Journals) Mary Kay Hunziger, 2014-03-20 Poems include quotes by Alan Cohen, Confucius, Buddha, Muhammad, Ravi Zacharias, etc. They are organized by names and from A to Z in coherence with the poems. The collection of poems includes 25 crafting poems from A to Z with quotes just like this one: Crafting is much like the letter U because crafting with used books is one of the best ways to add some style. It's a fun way to make an author's words become even more worthwhile! Crafting is also like U because crafting with the universe in mind is yet undefined but might be the best thing happening to mankind. Crafting with the universe might make you seem very small. Yet that one little space you take for you is the most important crafting space of all. Some very lucky few crafters are able to get in touch with it so make sure you work at it! Crafting is also quite like the letter U because crafting reminds me of crafting with used Christmas cards. Used Christmas cards are also quite nice because of every Xmas craft ingredient that is quite convenient and because crafting with Used Christmas cards also follows the crafting law of the Petit Bourgeois. There are other things like the blue artistic law and the natural crafting law, but the important thing to remember they are all employing the unwritten law of hem and haw! If you think that this crafting thing is getting out of line, let me tell you this. Question the law of crafting and with you, an expert will have a grand ol' time! And as always, never, never forget this. Make sure to stay true to your hue of blue and your glue. If you stick to this you will always keep your artistic view! Umberto Ungerer can really speak to this: The only exercise some people get is jumping to conclusions, running down their friends, side-stepping their responsibilities, and pushing their luck! -Umberto Ungerer Welcome to a happy crafting life and welcome to Crafting Is Like You!
